At the Thirty-first Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, held in Exeter Hall, Strand, on Tuesday, May 3, 1831.

The Right Hon. LORD GAMBIER, Vice-Patron and President, in the Chair.

The Report of the Committee having been read by the Clerical Secretary,

On a Motion by the Hon. and Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, seconded by the Hon. and Rev. Baptist Noel,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Report, of which an Abstract has been read, with an Amendment on that part of it relative to the West-Indies' Mission, be received, and printed under the direction of the Committee; and that this Meeting desires thankfully to acknowledge the continuance of the Divine Goodness to the Society during the past year.

On a Motion by the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Winchester, seconded by the Right Hon. Lord Bexley,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the thanks of this Meeting be given to the Rev. John Graham, for his Sermon preached before the Society last evening; to the President, Vice-Patrons, and Vice-Presidents; and to all those Friends who, during the past year, have exerted themselves in its behalf: and that the following Gentlemen be appointed the Committee for the year ensuing, with power to fill up vacancies. (See List, after Vice-Presidents.)

On a Motion by the Rev. John William Doran, Missionary from Travancore, seconded by John Sullivan, Esq. jun., late of Madras,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting desires to record its grateful sense of the superintending providence of God in opening a wide and effectual door into Abyssinia for the Missionaries of the Society; of His continued blessing on the Preaching of the Gospel in Southern India; and of the abundant encouragement vouchsafed to His servants in New Zealand.

On a Motion by the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Chester, seconded by the Rev. Lundy Foot,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting rejoices to hear of the Ordination of two Individuals, born in India, to the sacred Ministry of the Gospel; and while it acknowledges the goodness of God in calling them to this holy office, trusts that the Members of the Society will feel encouraged to pray for a fuller effusion of the Holy Spirit on the Society's Institutions at home and abroad, that many faithful Evangelists may go forth from them to testify of the Gospel of His Grace.

On a Motion by the Rev. Edward Bickersteth, seconded by the Rev. James Haldane Stewart,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That, in the present state of the world, this Meeting desires to impress on the Members of the Society, and of the Church of Christ, the peculiar importance of watchfulness and prayer, of self-denial and holy zeal in the service of their gracious Master; and to remind them of the faithful promise of Him who has said—I will be exalted among the Heathen; I will be exalted in the earth.

XXIII. Five Auditors shall be appointed by the Committee, annually, for the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Society; of whom, Three shall be chosen from the General Body. Three shall be a Quorum.

XXIV. The Life Subscriptions, or a sufficient part thereof, to be equal to the Subscriptions of the existing Members for Life, shall be placed in the Public Funds, in the names of Four of the General Committee; who, on their acceptance of the trust, shall sign a declaration of the nature of it, and that they will relinquish the same whenever called upon for that purpose by the General Committee.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXV. In the appointment of Candidates for the Missionary Office, the following course shall be pursued:——The Committee of Correspondence having found a person supposed to be suitable, shall determine by ballot to nominate him to the General Committee. Previous to the day of nomination, each Member of the General Committee shall receive notice of such nomination. On the day of nomination, a report shall be made, by some Member of the Committee of Correspondence, of his qualifications; and the General Committee shall then proceed to ballot for him, unless any Member shall declare that he wishes for further information; in which case the ballot shall be deferred till the next Meeting of the General Committee. In the ballot of either Committee, the agreement of at least Three-fourths of the Members present shall be necessary to his election.

XXVI. A Candidate thus chosen shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for his future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVII. If, during such preparation, any Two Members of the General Committee should see cause to disapprove of his principles or conduct, they may submit the subject to a Special Meeting of the Committee; and, if deemed proper, the Committee may appoint another ballot, to determine whether he shall be continued as a Candidate; of which special notice shall be given to each Member.

XXVIII. Each Candidate shall consider himself as engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time, which the Committee shall choose: respect, however, being had to his personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by him with the Society. As soon as he quits England, he shall keep a regular Journal of his studies and proceedings; a copy of which he shall send, as often as opportunity shall serve, to the Secretaries.

XXIX. Each Candidate, after due preparation, shall, if not admitted to Holy Orders, be appointed by the Committee to act as a Catechist. If admitted to Holy Orders, he shall be appointed a Missionary.

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the General Committee: and after having laboured in the cause of the Society to the satisfaction of the Committee, at the Stations committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, suitable provision shall be made to render their remaining days comfortable. The General Committee shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent Relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon his designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He "prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help," we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success

CHURCH MISSIONARY ASSOCIATIONS.

WHEN a disposition appears in any place to assist the designs of the Society by establishing an Association in its support, a Meeting of persons favourable to such a measure should be called. The friends who meet for this purpose should form themselves into a "Church Missionary Association, in aid of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East;" and should proceed to appoint a Committee and proper Officers.

In large Towns, comprehending several Parishes, it may be expedient to appoint a President, Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, and a Secretary; with a pretty numerous Committee, composed of persons from the different Parishes.

In Parochial Associations, a Treasurer, a Secretary, and a smaller Committee, under the Presidency of the Clergyman, may be best suited to conduct the business.

It may sometimes be found expedient to form Associations in Separate Congregations in the same Parish, rather than one Association in the Parish at large; and in this case, also, a Treasurer, Secretary, and Committee, under the Presidency of the Clergyman, will suffice to accomplish the object.

In a Voluntary Union of Friends, whether the members of the same family, the children of a school, or persons connected by affinity or friendship, such arrangements may be made as may prove most convenient to themselves.

In this manner, Benevolent Persons, willing to assist the designs of the Society, from the domestic circle to the largest town, may unite for a purpose most beneficial to their own minds, while it expresses a due regard to the glory of God in the salvation of the Heathen, and a proper sense of their own infinite obligations to Divine Mercy.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS SUITABLE FOR ASSOCIATIONS.

I. Annual Members of this Association shall be, all persons subscribing annually One Guinea or upward, or, if Clergymen, Half-a-Guinea; and also such Persons as shall collect in its behalf One Shilling or upward per week.

II. Life Members shall be Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upward, or, if Clergymen, such as shall contribute Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas, and Executors paying bequests of Fifty Pounds.

III. Annual Governors shall be Subscribers of Five Guineas per Annum.

IV. Life Governors shall be Benefactors of Fifty Pounds.

V. Members will be entitled to receive the Reports of this Association, and also the Annual Reports of the Parent Society, and to vote at all their General Meetings; and Collectors of One Shilling and upward per week will receive either a Copy of each Monthly Number of the Church Missionary Record, or the Annual Report of the Parent Society.—Governors will be entitled to receive the Reports; and, if Members of the Established Church, to vote at all Committee and General Meetings of both the Association and the Parent Society.—Clergymen will have the same privilege as Governors.

VI. The business of the Association shall be under the management of a Patron, a President, Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, Secretaries, Governors, and a Committee not exceeding ———— Lay Members of the Established Church, and of all Clergymen who are Members of this Association. The Committee to meet on the ———— in the months of January, April, July, and October, at ——— o'clock; Five Members being competent to act.

VII. The object of the Committee shall be, to call forth the zeal of well-disposed Persons, and particularly those of the Established Church, in support of the Church Missionary Society; and to recommend proper Persons who may offer themselves as Missionaries to the Parent Society—to disperse as widely as possible Missionary Information—to promote the formation of Branch Associations—and to procure Collections and other Contributions.

VIII. The whole of the Funds so obtained, after deducting incidental expenses only, shall be remitted to the Church Missionary Society in aid of its designs.

IX. A General Meeting shall be held annually, on such day in the month of ———— as shall be found expedient (of which due notice shall be given), when a Report of the Proceedings of the Association shall be presented.

2 COR. VIII. 9.

YE KNOW THE GRACE OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, THAT THOUGH HE WAS RICH, YET FOR YOUR SAKES HE BECAME POOR, THAT YE, THROUGH HIS POVERTY, MIGHT BE RICH.

WHEN, my Christian Brethren, I turn my thoughts on the immense importance of the object, which has this evening convened us in the House of God, and when I survey the large assemblage which an interest in that object has drawn around me, I cannot but feel the arduousness and responsibility of my situation. I derive, however, no small relief and encouragement, from a confidence in the candour of my audience; but still more would I rest, for refuge and support, on the promises and mighty power of Him, who delights to glorify Himself, by perfecting His strength in the weakness of the weakest of His servants. The confession of Moses becomes me: I am not eloquent. The declaration of the Apostle suits me: My speech and my preaching are not with the enticing words of man's wisdom. If, my Brethren, your faith stands not in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God, you will not disdain your preacher because he comes not before you with the reasoning powers of a Butler, the profundity of a Pascal, the erudition of an Usher, the ingenuity of a Warburton, the acuteness of a Paley, or the eloquence of a Massillon. And if, as I venture to infer from your presence on this occasion, your hearts are already with this Society, as a chosen instrument of God for the enlargement of Christ's Kingdom, in the conversion of the Heathen, you need but to have your minds stirred up by being put in remembrance of your privileges and obligations, and to have your affections warmed by a contemplation of God's mercies in Christ Jesus; for so will your purpose be invigorated of consecrating to His glory your bodies and spirits, your influence and substance, which are His.

The portion of His Word, which I have selected for our consideration, is, in my view, eminently calculated to cherish such holy feelings and resolves.—May the God of all grace, who made the glorious Gospel of Christ quick and powerful from the lips of fishermen, be in the midst of us! then shall not I preach and you hear in vain.

The occasion, to which my text refers, was this. The Churches of Macedonia had voluntarily and generously raised a contribution for the poor saints at Jerusalem, labouring under the double calamity of persecution and famine. In this chapter, the Apostle brings before the Corinthian Converts the munificence of their northern neighbours, and urges them to imitate so noble an example. It is well when one body of Christians, by its zeal and liberality, provokes others to a holy rivalry, in disseminating the knowledge of the Gospel through this ruined world. May the Church Missionary and other Religious Societies, whose numerous Anniversaries, at this season, furnish a rich spiritual feast to the Christian mind, and which are the glory of our times, long continue to animate one another to a combined and vigorous warfare against the powers of darkness! and may their common God and Saviour preserve the members and friends of each Society in peace and harmony; unite all these Institutions to each other in brotherly love; and vouchsafe His enlarged blessing to the labours of every one of them!

The grounds on which St. Paul solicits the bounty of the Corinthian Believers are purely Christian, such as a Minister of God's Word may, at all times, hope to urge upon a Christian audience with success. The all-important theme, on which he, in all his Epistles, dwells with especial frequency and emphasis, is, the redemption of fallen man by the atoning sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ. The doctrine of the Cross is the sun in his system, which diffuses light and life, and energy and action, and comfort, through the whole. To the Lamb of God, bearing our sins in his own body on the tree, thereby obtaining redemption and spiritual gifts for men, He sends the humbled penitent, not only to receive the gratuitous boon of pardon and justification through faith, but also to draw down a current of holy fire into his heart, to elicit a vivid impulse on the affections of his soul, which may act within him as an irresistible and sweetly constraining motive to all that is pure, and just, and good, and lovely, and kind. Thus, in the chapter before us, with a view to enlarge their conceptions, and deepen their sense of the love and grace of Christ—for the purpose not only of augmenting their faith and hope and consolations, but also of exciting them to a work of faith and labour of love—he thus addresses them: Ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through His poverty might be rich.

I purpose to notice,

I. The DOCTRINE of the text.

II. The DUTY on which it distinctly bears, and for which it eminently qualifies; with special reference to the Society, whose cause I am to plead before you.

I. THE DOCTRINE of the text may be viewed in its FACTS, RESULTS, and PRINCIPLE.

The FACTS of the doctrine are these: Our Lord Jesus Christ was originally rich; but He became poor—He became poor for our sakes; and with this express design, that through His poverty we might become rich. Let us very briefly consider each of these particulars.

The Lord Jesus Christ was once rich. He was rich, BEFORE He became poor. The original literally is: Being rich, He became poor. This depression, from riches to poverty, unquestionably took place, WHEN (not after) He was made flesh, and dwelt among us: for no reduction from honour to contempt, from dignity to degradation, from opulence to want, occurred during his residence on earth, which commenced in the lowest condition of life, continued in poverty, and terminated on the cross.

Before, He made himself of no reputation; therefore, before He took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men, He existed, and was rich—rich in the glory of eternal Godhead; so that on His return to the bosom of the Father, He could ask of Him: Glorify thou me with thine own self, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

But though thus rich in divinity, glory, and dominion, it pleased Him to become poor. He laid not aside His Divine Essence (that were impossible), but He veiled it by the assumption of our inferior nature. Condescension, how amazing! Humiliation, how extreme! The Creator of all things is found among His creatures—creatures most degraded, most undeserving; and that in the meanest condition of man. Born in a stable, cradled in a manger, and reared under the roof of an humble mechanic, when He entered on His public ministry the Lord of the Universe had not where to lay his head. Thus disciplined in a course of poverty and privation, during which He blessed mankind with His heavenly doctrine for their instruction, and with His perfect example for their imitation, He was prepared for His last great sacrifice, that of life itself. Immanuel, numbered with transgressors, expires between two thieves, in the ignominious, excruciating death of the cross!—What, my Brethren, could induce the Eternal Son of God thus to be made man—thus to live destitute, despised, persecuted—thus, as He expected and foretold, to die in infamy and torture? Infinite Wisdom, we are sure, would never have determined that thus it must be, except for the attainment of some vast object, which could not be accomplished in a way less painfully tremendous to the Adorable Sufferer.

The OBJECT for which He came and died is as wonderful, as His incarnation and its consequences were humiliating. In connexion with vindicating the government, and manifesting the glory of God, His object was, to do us good: For your sakes He became poor. For our sakes, my Brethren? What is man, that He should be thus mindful of him; and the son of man, that He should thus visit him? Are not the whole race of mankind, whether civilized or savage, involved in the guilt of Adam's transgression, and infected with a radical corruption of nature? Was not the whole world—with few exceptions which Grace had made—found by the Incarnate Redeemer in a state of apostacy from its God, alienated from Him in affection, and combined in impious rebellion against His law and government? Must we not each confess, that we have grievously sinned against Him, "in thought, word, and deed," by numberless offences; thereby "provoking most justly His wrath and indignation "against us?" And yet, when thus utterly depraved, enormously sinful, inexcusably guilty, deserving His abhorrence rather than His love, for our sakes He stoop'd to our nature, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the Cross. Nay—hear it, O heavens! and give ear every sinner upon earth!—it was for this very reason, because we were sinners, destitute of righteousness and hope; because we were debtors, and had nothing to pay—guilty, and had nothing to plead—that He came to our relief.

The RESULTS are what might be expected from such an interposition by so glorious a Being. Through His meritorious righteousness, atoning death, availing intercession, and the mighty Spirit of His grace, all who truly believe in Him become rich indeed—rich in the love and favour of a pardoning God—rich in the blessedness of a renewed heart—rich in peace of conscience and a lively hope—rich in the graces and comforts of the Holy Spirit—rich in good works—rich in a title and a meetness for immortal glory with God.

The subject becomes, if possible, still more interesting and impressive, when we advert to the PRINCIPLE which originated the Saviour's undertaking. His coming to save and enrich us, was not in compliance with any solicitation on our part for His compassionate interference. Our salvation is according to God's own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus, before the world began.

Neither did we at all deserve to be redeemed by so costly a ransom. When we were without strength, or goodness, Christ died for the ungodly. God commendeth his love to us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. To no source, but the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, can we trace His submission to poverty, suffering, and shame, for our enrichment. And if the Gospel has come to one people rather than to another, in word; or to one individual, rather than to another, in saving power; this is to be ascribed to free grace, unsolicited pity, undeserved love.

Such, my Brethren, is the DOCTRINE of the text, in its FACTS, RESULTS, and PRINCIPLE. It presents an epitome of the whole Gospel of Christ, and of all revealed Truth. Here the character and perfections of God shine forth in glorious lustre. Here the amazing scheme of man's redemption, which Prophets obscurely foretold, and Angels desired to look into, is spread open to our view, in its source, accomplishment, and blessings. Here the seeming paradox is solved—that sin can be punished and the sinner saved—that God can be just, while He justifies the true believer in Jesus. Here the righteousness of God without the law, without respect to human works and merit, is manifested .... even the righteousness of God, which is by faith of Jesus Christ, unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: for all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.

This, my Brethren, is the great fundamental doctrine, on which Ministers at home and Missionaries abroad must prominently dwell; this is the grand panacea of the Gospel, which they must constantly exhibit, if they would do the work of an Evangelist well, exalt the Redeemer in the eyes of perishing sinners, and, by His blessing on their labours, both save themselves and them that hear them. Be it so, that the Cross of Christ is still to the self-righteous a stumbling-block, and to the wise and wicked of this world, foolishness: to all who are effectually called, it is the power of God, and the wisdom of God. The love of Christ, manifested in His humiliation and dying agonies for wretched sinners, when realized and felt under the power of the Holy Spirit, alike insinuates itself, with transforming energy, into the yielding affections of the Christian, the Jew, and the Gentile: it melts as the fire; it attracts as the magnet. Christ glorified owns and blesses no doctrine, but that of Christ crucified. Let Him be lifted up, as the Lamb of God who has loved us, and given himself for us, and He will draw all men unto him. Where, so effectually, as at the foot of the Cross, do we learn to know God, to hate and renounce sin, to overcome the world, to be stedfast in faith, joyful through hope, and rooted in love; and no longer to live to ourselves, but to Him who died for us, and rose again? Ask of the enlightened, experienced Christian: 'Where do you form the clearest and most impressive conceptions of the wisdom and power, the holiness and justice, the love and mercy of Jehovah?' He will answer: 'When I place myself, by faith, on Calvary, I behold all these adorable attributes, like the blended colours of light in one harmonious, refulgent ray of glory, beaming from the Cross.' Ask him further: 'When are you penetrated with the most astounding convictions of the loathsome foulness, and deadly malignity of sin?' He will reply: 'When I look on my expiring Lord redeeming me from the curse of the Law, by being made a curse for me.' Ask him once more: 'Where do you best learn a lesson of humility, meekness, patience, forbearance, and kindness? and when do you feel your heart most powerfully drawn to Him, in faith, hope, gratitude, and love?' Will not his answer be: 'When I trace the Son of God in His voluntary, amazing descent from the Throne of bliss and glory, to the ignominy and agony of the Cross; when I contemplate this innocent victim there; never, under insults, opening his mouth to rebuke; or, under tortures, to repine; when I hear Him interceding for the souls of His insolent murderers; and when His last breath utters the shout of triumph, for Himself and for me, It is finished.'

The grace of Christ, when, under Divine Teaching, thus experimentally known, operates as powerfully on the principles as on the feelings of men. While it relieves the conscience, and wins the heart to Christ, it refines and exalts the character. All, to whom the grace of God bringeth salvation, it may be expected to teach and dispose, uniformly and universally, to deny ungodliness and worldly lusts; to live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; and to discharge well every relative duty of life.

II. But the time admonishes me to confine myself to one particular DUTY specified in the context—a duty, on which the doctrine, just considered, distinctly bears, and for the performance of which it peculiarly qualifies—the duty of compassion and kindness to our fellow-creatures. The Apostle rests his appeal to the Corinthian Christians entirely on the unparalleled self-denying love of Christ, exhibited in its effects upon the Macedonian Churches, as described in the preceding verses of this chapter; whose example, borne out by that of the Lord Jesus Christ Himself, he proposes for imitation. That example instructs us in the following branches of this duty:—(1) In exemplifying our compassion and kindness, we must contribute our assistance with ready cheerfulness. Brethren, says the Apostle, we do you to wit (we make known to you) the grace of God bestowed on the Churches of Macedonia; who were willing of themselves (to contribute); praying us, with much entreaty, that we would receive the gift. (2) We must be careful how we admit the expenses of a family, the claims of other charities, the difficulties of the times, or any other pressure upon our circumstances, as an apology for our parsimony. In a great trial of affliction, he proceeds, the abundance of their joy (in the Lord), and their deep poverty, abounded unto the riches of their liberality. Being very poor (as a Commentator remarks on the passage), and much afflicted, they, notwithstanding, with great cheerfulness and joy, made a rich contribution. (3) We must not be satisfied with doing what costs us little in time, labour, or self-denial; nor with giving just what we can entirely and without sacrifice spare: for he bears them record, that having given themselves first to the Lord, they gave to their power, yea, and beyond their power. And our compassionate Redeemer, from being divinely rich, for our sakes willingly emptied Himself, of ease, dignity, glory, life. (4) We must not confine our benevolent regards to our friends, neighbours, and countrymen. The Macedonians sent their contributions into another quarter of the globe; and Christ interposed for aliens, for them that were afar off from the Church and family of God. (5) It is not the temporal wants and woes of men that must principally engage our sympathy: the supreme object of Christ's humiliation was, not to relieve bodily sufferings and maladies (though He did not overlook these), but to give light, mercy, grace, and glory, to SOULS that were ready to perish.

You have now before you, my Brethren, a feeble sketch of that Christian philanthropy, in its principle and operations, which it is the object of this Society to call into vigorous and extensive action. And, is there not a cause? Live there, in the benighted regions of our globe, six hundred millions of immortal souls, languishing under the famine, not of the meat that perisheth, but of that which endureth unto everlasting life; and shall we be deaf to the cry of their misery, Come over and help us? Know we the only Name under heaven given among men, whereby they can be saved; and shall we, with unfeeling hearts, continue, like the centuries that are past, to leave them to perish in ignorance of that Saviour?—If, indeed, there be one in this assembly who knows not the value of that blessed Name, in his own soul's salvation, we expect not to find in him a generous ardour to proclaim it to others. He carries not in his breast that principle to which a Minister of Jesus can appeal. We dare not say to him: 'Let your contribution, this evening, for the support of Missions among the Heathen, be liberal, and it will stand in balance against a multitude of your sins.' No: it cost more to redeem our souls: he must let that alone for ever. But, if you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, in its proper influence upon your affections and principles, there are arguments for exciting you to this duty, which, by God's blessing, we may employ with effect; for there will be found in your hearts, chords that will vibrate to their touch.

We might, indeed, first address ourselves to your feelings of compassion, to your bowels of mercies, as men, for the most wretched and hopeless of your species. I need not dilate on the deplorable condition of the Heathen Nations. What they were in the Apostolic age, they are now, and must ever remain, till the Light of the glorious Gospel shall arise upon them, and till its power shall reach and renovate their hearts. Till then, they are, and will ever be, aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, strangers from the Covenant of Promise; having no hope, as being without Christ, and without God in the world. Brethren, can a more affecting picture of human wretchedness be pourtrayed? If these are not objects for our tenderest sympathy, where is consummate misery to be found?—Britain is honourable among the Nations, for the variety and magnitude of her Charities. In this great Metropolis, benevolence has reared and endowed Hospitals for the destitute, the aged, and the orphan; Infirmaries for the afflicted in body; Asylums for the disordered in mind;—but what are temporal privations and sufferings, compared with the spiritual destitution of the Heathen!—Christian auditor! does not your heart yearn over your poor Pagan brother? If informed of a friendless pilgrim, overtaken by night in a waste howling wilderness, amidst pitfalls and beasts of prey, would you not pity him, and send him a light, and a guide, to extricate him from danger and death? And shall not we send forth Bibles, and Missionaries, as copiously as possible, to the myriads who are desolate and faint, and hopeless, in moral midnight, in the very region of the shadow of eternal death?

You commiserate the poor West-Indian Slave, whose pains and groans, under exhausting labour, in cruel bondage, are only to be relieved by the cheerless rest of a premature grave: but how much more the objects of compassion are the sinners of the Gentiles, viewed as the abject bond-slaves of the god of this world, not only degraded and wretched on earth, but ripening in idolatry and every abomination for eternal banishment from God! Surely, if ever humanity was called upon to display its benevolence, here is the field for its exertions.

But, Brethren, your attendance here indicates that we have within your breasts a still more influential advocacy in our cause, than the languid, contracted sensibilities of mere unhallowed humanity. We rely on the stimulating, expansive action of the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ on your grateful affections. What effects that action is capable of producing, we have a signal illustration in the instructive case of this Apostle himself. Struck with the stupendous grandeur of the subject of his contemplations—the love of Christ, he assays to determine its extent; in its breadth, commensurate with the habitable globe; in its length, reaching from Adam's fall to the end of time; in its depth, stooping to rescue condemned sinners from the brink of hell; and in its height, exalting them to glory in the heavens. He attempts, I say, to measure this love; but he retires from the effort, in an ecstasy of baffled, adoring astonishment, and pronounces it a love which passeth knowledge. And when the Spirit of God sheds abroad on his heart a sense of this incomprehensible love towards himself, the chief of sinners, how does it influence his opinions, character, and conduct? His views undergo a complete revolution; his heart is enlarged; his pride sinks down into profound humility; his narrow prejudices expand into unbounded charity; and his fierce bigotry softens into holy zeal. Full of the Holy Ghost and of wisdom, he becomes an incomparably able and judicious Minister of the New Testament. Though favoured, in vision, with manifestations of celestial glory denied to other men, he aspires not to be wise above that which is revealed. He indulges in no vague, unsupported theories in Religion. In searching into the deep things of God, he ventures not one step farther than the light from Heaven conducts him. He dwells not on speculative, but on practical subjects. He presses no Divine truth at the expense or injury of another. His system, if he have a system, is large and comprehensive. Fearless of the charge of inconsistency, he gives full and simultaneous play to seemingly antagonist doctrines. He maintains and enforces, with equal energy, the sovereignty of God in His kingdom of nature and grace, and the responsibility of man—justification by faith alone, and the necessity of holiness—the privileges and duties of a pardoned Child of God; and calls upon us to work out our salvation with fear and trembling—why? because it is God that worketh in us, both to will and to do of his good pleasure.—And, then, with respect to his personal conduct, no sooner had it pleased God to reveal his Son in him, than he confers not with flesh and blood: he has been bought with a price: he is not his own: he presents himself to his adored Redeemer, a living sacrifice: he cheerfully accepts his commission to go and preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. His love for Christ, and for perishing souls, bears him triumphant over labour and danger, privations and persecutions, imprisonments and death. He counts not his life dear unto him, so that he may finish his course with joy, and the ministry which he has received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the Gospel of the grace of God.

Can we, my Brethren, rise from contemplating the heroic self-devotion of this illustrious servant of Christ, without fervent prayer, that the Lord of the harvest would send forth numerous Labourers, at home and abroad, animated with the spirit of this Missionary Apostle? But is this all, to which the love of Christ should constrain us? Are our sins less numerous, less malignant, than Paul's; or our obligations to redeeming mercy and renewing grace less binding? If, then, we have not a heart, or an opportunity, to go forth ourselves, shall we not liberally provide, that others may go, and supply our lack of service? If we have freely received mercy and grace, through the dying love of the Lord Jesus, and from the Spirit of our God, shall we not freely give, for the widest possible diffusion of the word of life? Shall we not have compassion on our destitute fellow-sinners, even as our pardoning God has had compassion on us?

If, in an experimental perception of the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, there is a sufficient power to IMPEL us forward, there are not wanting, in the Divine Promises, and in the aspect of the times, sufficient encouragements to INVITE us forward. Most explicit are the declarations of God, that He will give to His Son the Heathen for his inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for his possession; so that all the ends of the world shall see the salvation of our God. The Lord Jesus will establish His universal Kingdom, by sending forth His Gospel everywhere, and Ministers to preach it; Himself working with them, by His effectual grace. All this is implied in His parting direction and assurance to His Disciples; and to us, through them: Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature; and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Here is an injunction of unlimited and perpetual obligation. Shall we then demur to its command, till certain prophecies are fulfilled, and till converted Jews shall take the work and the honour out of our hands? Did the Missionaries so wait, who evangelized the greatest part of Asia and Europe, and, under the banner of the Cross, expelled the bloody orgies of Druidic Idolatry from the shores of our remote and then barbarous Island?—Except by making the trial, in reliance on the gracious influence of the Holy Spirit, how shall it ever be known, when the Lord's time of extended mercy to the poor Heathen is come? Our attempts to bring them out of darkness into light, and from the power of Satan unto God, even should He delay to work with us and confirm His Word, would neither be unprofitable to ourselves, nor displeasing to Him. He would, in that case, say of us, as of David, who desired to erect a material temple for His worship: Thou didst well in that it was in thine heart.—But, adored be His Name! He has not left us without witness of His countenance and blessing. He is working a work in our days, which, thirty years ago, it would have been deemed visionary to anticipate as even probable. At what period, as now, was it ever put into the hearts of Christians of all countries to arrange themselves, as one mighty army, under the standard of the Lord of Hosts, for this holy warfare? And has He not already begun to divide the spoil with the strong? Without noticing the measure of success afforded to Missionary exertions, on the shores of the Mediterranean, in the West Indies, in Labrador and Greenland, in Ceylon and the vast Peninsula of India, may we not ask: Is the spiritual revolution in the South-Sea Islands—is the work now proceeding at Tinnevelly, less than a miracle? Is not Ethiopia stretching out her sable hands to God, in the Redeemer's Name? and are not the savage cannibals of New Zealand at length beginning to yield, with softened hearts, to the all-subduing influence of the love of Jesus?

Shall not, then, Missionary Societies thank God for past and present success, and take courage to proceed, with a simple dependence on the arm of His strength? Yes, my Brethren, it is to the Everlasting Hills we must look up; for from thence alone cometh our help. The object for which we have to labour and to pray, let us ever bear seriously in mind, is not the NATIONAL conversion of Gentile tribes to the profession of the Christian Creed, but the INDIVIDUAL conversion of Gentile sinners to Christ. But nothing less than the omnipotence of the Holy Spirit can accomplish this change in the corrupt heart of man, of any name or condition. Let us, then, feel and confess that our help is in Him. The word of the Lord to Zerubbabel is His word to this Society: Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts. If we rely on an arm of flesh; on the extent of our resources; the judiciousness of our measures; or the number, talent, piety, or zeal of our Missionaries; our God will humble us: we shall sow to the wind, and reap the whirlwind. Is it then the desire of our hearts to see the Kingdom of God and of His Christ erected where the seat of Satan now is, let us, with unwearied prayer, entreat Jehovah to appear in his glory, and in the excellency of his strength: let us beseech Him to direct our counsels at home, and to prosper the work of our hands upon us abroad. The fields are already extensively white unto the harvest. Did men, full of faith and zeal and of the Holy Ghost, come forward, and say, Here are we, send us; and did the Society possess a large surplus of means; facilities are opened, by the concurrent operations of God's Providence and Grace, for the most promising application of them. But its funds are not equal to the support even of its present engagements.

I may be allowed to allude to another topic, which has strong claims on the generous consideration of the Christian Church. Some of the Society's Missionaries are returning home, with constitutions broken down in its service: others are called to their rest, and leave behind them Widows and Children destitute of the means of support. Now, can gratitude, can humanity, can common justice leave these interesting characters to neglect and wretchedness? No; your sympathizing hearts would sicken at the thought. Such affecting cases must and will be met. Christian Benevolence rises to the level of emergencies: its elasticity is in the ratio of the pressure made upon it. My redeemed fellow-sinners, let us feel our mercies and our responsibilities. Our time for action is short—may be very short. Who among us can pledge his presence, and his aid, even for the next Anniversary? Let us, then, work while it is day? The destitute Heathen are perishing by thousands daily; and the night of death will soon overtake each of us, when nothing can be done for Christ or for them. We certainly have not yet taken up the cause of Missions on a scale in any degree proportionate to our opportunities, obligations, and means. Almighty God has, by a distinguishing providence, invested Protestant England with a signal preponderance in wealth, in influence, and in commercial intercourse with the whole civilized world: has she devoted any just portion of these talents to the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ in the earth? Our venerable Church instructs us to pray, that God will be pleased to "make His way known upon earth, His saving health among all nations;" but have her sons been acting up to the spirit of this Missionary Prayer? And can we, my Brethren, appeal to Him, who cheerfully submitted to such unparalleled self-denials for our salvation, and who measures our love to Himself by our love and kindness to men for His sake—can we, I say, individually appeal to Him, that we are doing what we can in this great cause? Does He know, that for the purpose of being able to throw more into His treasury, we have resorted to measures of practicable economy, in the abridgment of our personal and domestic expenditure?—If any Institution can entitle itself to the warm affections, the fervent prayers, and the profuse pecuniary support of a redeemed Child of God, it must be that which has for its object the Redeemer's glory, and the salvation of perishing sinners—the specific object of this Society. Never were its prospects brighter, its wants greater, its claims more urgent. Give us, then, your support, this evening, according to your power, yea, and beyond your power. Let it be seen, that the tone of your feelings, in this cause, does not rise and fall in correspondence with the powers and defects of the preacher; but that it derives a high and steady temperature from your ardent, devoted love to Him, who for your sakes became voluntarily and immeasurably poor, that ye, through his poverty, might be inconceivably and eternally rich. And may the pure and benevolent spirit of the Gospel so shine forth in this, and all your doings, that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ!

REPORT

COMMITTEE.

DELIVERED, IN SUBSTANCE,

TO

THE ANNUAL MEETING,

HELD MAY 3, 1831,

AT EXETER HALL, STRAND.

REPORT,

In submitting to the Members of the Society a Report of their Proceedings during the Thirty-first Year, the Committee will first advert to the change which has taken place in the Society's domestic affairs. For fifteen years it has enjoyed the active services of the Rev. E. Bickersteth, through whose instrumentality, under the Divine Blessing, an extensive interest has been excited in that Cause to which he is himself deeply attached. In the course of the last year, Mr. Bickersteth, having found himself unequal to the duties of his official situation, in connexion with his other engagements, intimated to the Committee his intention of retiring, at the close of the year, from the office which he had so long, and so advantageously to the Society, occupied. The feelings with which the Committee received this intimation will be best understood from the following Resolution entered on their Minutes:—

That the Committee record their grateful sense of the eminent services which have been rendered to the Society by their beloved Brother, the Rev. Edward Bickersteth, for fifteen years; by which, under the blessing of God, the advancement of its general objects has been greatly promoted, and a Missionary Spirit extensively excited and cherished among its Associations: and that, while the Committee cordially regret the loss which the Society is about to sustain, they beg to tender to Mr. Bickersteth the assurance of their affectionate regard, and of their earnest desire that the Great Head of the Church, who has removed him from one sphere of labour to another, will enrich him with His grace, and abundantly bless him in the fulfilment of the duties of the Station on which he is about to enter.

Mr. Bickersteth's retirement led to a revision of the arrangements previously made for conducting the affairs of the Society; and it appeared advisable to separate the business relative to Association Anniversaries from that of a more general kind. A successor to Mr. Bickersteth in the Secretaryship has not, therefore, been appointed; but the general business of the Society has been devolved on the present Secretaries, with an additional Clerk.

Under this arrangement, the Clerical Secretary will not be required to visit the Associations; his undivided time and attention being called for by the business of the Office.

To provide for the lack of service occasioned by this arrangement, and for the attendance of a Representative of the Parent Society at the Association Anniversaries, it is intended to appoint a Second Clerical Visiting Secretary, whose whole time and attention will be devoted to the business connected with the Associations. Two Visiting Secretaries, together with the Lay Agent already appointed—whose more peculiar province is, the re-organization and enlargement of existing Associations, and the formation of new ones—is, in the opinion of the Committee, the least provision that can be made duly to maintain that intercourse with the Associations which is requisite for their efficiency.

While, however, the Committee have made this arrangement to meet the wants of the Associations, they desire most earnestly to impress on their Clerical Friends the importance of their continuing to render voluntary aid in support of the Society's objects in their respective neighbourhoods.

The Committee, at the same time, tender their cordial thanks to those Clergymen who have kindly accompanied the Secretaries in their visits to the Associations, and who have pleaded the Cause of the Society in many of the most important places in the Kingdom. By the blessing of God on the labours of these friends, that Missionary spirit which so happily exists in the Country has been in a great measure called forth and maintained.

INSTITUTION.

In the Institution at Islington there are at present Seventeen Students. Twelve have been admitted during the year; eight have left; three have received Ordination; and nine have proceeded to their respective Stations.

The Committee of Visitors, who meet Quarterly at the Institution, have been much gratified with the general character and proficiency of the Students. The formation of a District Visiting Society in the Parish of Islington has afforded them an advantageous opportunity of usefully employing their hours of relaxation from study: and their visits to the poor and afflicted, under the direction and controul of the Clergy, while they accustom them to habits of discipline and order, are beneficial preparatives for their future labours among the Heathen in Foreign Lands. The Committee are happy to state, that the attainments in Theological Knowledge, of several of those who have been examined as Candidates for Holy Orders, have, on more than one occasion, been commended by the Bishop of London, as well as by his Lordship's Predecessor; and that the last three Missionaries who have joined the North-India Mission have been able publicly to read the Liturgy in Hindoostanee, within a short time after their arrival in Calcutta.

May He, from whom comes every good and perfect gift, pour out on all who are admitted into the Institution the abundance of His Grace; and send them forth in the fulness of His Blessing, to declare His Name among the Heathen!

FUNDS.

The Income of the Society, on the General Account, for the year just closed, was 46,584*l.* 16*s.* 7*d.*; that of the preceding year, 47,328*l.* 17*s.*: thus leaving a decrease of 744*l.* 0*s.* 5*d.* But this statement does not fully disclose the financial situation of the Society. On comparing the Receipts of the two years through Associations, there is a deficiency, in those of the last year, of nearly 2000*l.* The total deficiency is reduced to the amount specified above, principally by an excess of Receipts in the last year, under the head of Legacies, of upwards of 1000*l.* As the Receipts through Associations form the main source of the Society's income, the large deficit under this head excites much anxiety in the minds of the Society.

The Receipts during the year on account of the Disabled Missionaries' &c. Fund have amounted to 1189*l.* 14*s.* 5*d.*: and on account of the Building Fund, 65*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.*

WEST-AFRICA MISSION.

This Mission has been strengthened by the accession of three Catechists; who left this country in October, and accompanied the Rev. John Raban on his return to the Colony. The Members of the Mission have thus been enabled to provide for the efficient superintendence of all the Settlements with the care of which they are at present charged: but their number being still inadequate to the exigencies of the Colony, they have been prevented from resuming the charge of the Sea District, which from this cause they were compelled to relinquish in 1827; and thus a population of 8000 souls is left destitute, without a single Spiritual Instructor. The Committee wish to bring this fact distinctly under the notice of the Members of the Society, in the hope that the mention of it may, under the blessing of God, stimulate some of His servants to come forward for the spiritual benefit of those who are perishing for lack of knowledge.

The number of persons attending the Ministry of the Gospel is encouraging; and the estimation in which it is held may, in some degree, be inferred from the readiness manifested by the Liberated Africans to contribute towards the erection or enlargement of Places of Worship, where they are needed. Though, as might be expected, a large number of those who attend Public Worship do not appear to have received the Grace of God in truth, it should excite our thankfulness that they are within the Means of Grace; and our prayers, that the means may be made effectual by a blessing from above.

There were at the various Settlements, according to the last Returns, 674 Communicants; a number somewhat less than that of the preceding year, but which, when the total amount of the population is considered, and the salutary adherence to Ecclesiastical Discipline is borne in mind, will, it is apprehended, be found to equal that of some of the best regulated Parishes in our own Land. While, therefore, every Member of the Society, who has the welfare of Africa and the Glory of Christ at heart, desires and prays for greater results than those which we have already witnessed, he will feel grateful for that measure of blessing which has been already vouchsafed; and will concur in the sentiments of one of the Missionaries;—

Taking all things into consideration—the ignorant state of the people when they arrive—the habits to which they were for many years addicted—the frequent removals of those to whom they were accustomed as their Spiritual Pastors, either by death or by other providential circumstances —MUCH, VERY MUCH has already been done in the Colony, by the instrumentality of those frail men that have been employed in the work.

The state of the Schools, both as it respects the number of the Scholars and their proficiency, is very satisfactory. There has been a large increase during the year; and the total number of Scholars, according to the Annual Returns, is as follows:—

Boys	1351
Girls	778
Youths and Adults . .	231

The Inspectors of the Schools, who are chosen by the Missionaries from among themselves, have expressed their decided conviction, that at no period within their knowledge have the Schools equally answered the main object of the Society, in this branch of its labours—that of imparting to the Youths of the Colony a useful and religious education. One point mentioned by the Inspectors claims attention:—

We have noticed with pleasure the large number of Children who have already proceeded so far as to be able to read the Holy Scriptures: we found, to our agreeable surprise, no less than 476 Children, in the different Schools, reading the Word of Life.

In the Institution at Fourah Bay, under Mr. Haensel's care, there were 11 Students at the date of the last Returns.

In many former years it has been the painful duty of the Committee to notice the severe privations of the Society in the providential removals of its devoted Labourers: the last year has, however, been marked by the severest of all afflictions—the grievous fall of one who had for many years enjoyed the full confidence of the Committee. The dishonour which has thus been done to the Name of Christ, the stumbling-block thrown in the way of the weak, and the occasion which has been given to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, have been keenly felt, by the Members of the Mission, and the Committee at home. May the Sovereign Controller of all events overrule this humiliating occurrence for His own glory; and teach us the salutary lesson, Let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall!

MEDITERRANEAN MISSION.

While the events which have occurred, in rapid succession, in the countries bordering on the Mediterranean have engaged the attention of the Politician, the mind of the Christian has been fixed on a higher object—the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ; and he has watched, with anxiety, the opportunities which have been afforded, of imparting to those regions of darkness the light of Divine Truth.

In Malta, under the Divine favour, the Society's Press has continued its operations; and there have been printed, from July 1, 1829, to December 31, 1830, 57,900 copies of Books and Tracts in the Italian, Greek, Arabic, and Maltese Languages; of which 51,304 have been issued from the Depository.

The Society's last Report noticed the facilities enjoyed by the Missionaries for the introduction of a sound and Scriptural System of Education into several Islands of the Archipelago, and especially Syra. These facilities, the Committee regret to state, have ceased; and the doctrines and usages of Image Worship have been introduced into the plans of Education, apparently under the express sanction of the new Greek Government. It is a matter of satisfaction, to reflect, that, situated in the midst of such trying circumstances, our Missionaries have in no respect appealed to any feelings, but such as are in accordance with Truth and Peace. They remonstrated, as long as they were able to do so, on Scriptural grounds; and, when overruled by the influence of the Local Authority, they did not compromise in any thing the purity of the Gospel. These circumstances have rendered it desirable that Dr. Korck should remove to Corfu; where there appears, from Mr. Leeves's account, a favourable opening for his labours. Messrs. Hildner and Jetter will continue for the present at Syra, in order to ascertain whether it be practicable for them to prosecute the objects of the Mission on Scriptural principles. Their Infants' School, containing 120 Children, is independent of the Government.

The Missionaries in Egypt have been employed in preaching, education, and the distribution of the Scriptures. The Greek Patriarch has prohibited his people from receiving books from them; while a friendly disposition on the part of the Coptic Patriarch is increasingly manifested.

In Abyssinia, through the gracious providence of God, the obstacles which impeded the entrance of the Missionaries have been removed; and there is reason to hope that a great and effectual door is opened to them. They have been received by Sebagadis, the Ras of Tigré, with the greatest kindness; and, to their great joy, found their friend Girgis, with whom they first became acquainted in Egypt, and to whom they were instrumental in imparting the knowledge of Divine Truth, continuing stedfast in the Faith. Mr. Gobat, at the date of their last communications, was at Gondar, in Amhara; and Mr. Kugler at Quila, in the Province of Tigré. Mr. Gobat was shortly expected to join Mr. Kugler: and they considered it desirable to fix on Adowah as their place of residence, to which proposal Sebagadis had given his consent. Apprehensions were entertained of the breaking out of hostilities between Amhara and Tigré; but Girgis had been deputed by the Government to proceed to Amhara, for the purpose of negociating for peace.

From the preceding statement of the proceedings of our two Missionaries, the Members of the Society will observe with what an unexpected degree of facility they have been enabled to prosecute their labours thus far in Abyssinia, and with what a fair prospect of security they may be expected to remain in the country, even if troubles should for a season break out. The Committee cannot reflect on all these circumstances without recording their opinion on this new instance of encouragement given to waiting and persevering faith. At one period, the delays and difficulties of this branch of the Mediterranean Mission were such as to excite much uneasiness, and even a serious apprehension that it might become requisite to abandon the prosecution of this enterprise into Abyssinia. The Members of the Society will doubtless share the joy of the Committee, in contemplating the good hand of our God upon us, in finally opening the way, and enabling His Servants freely to distribute the Scriptures which had been in the meanwhile preparing for their hands, and to speak and preach in regions so remote, and so rarely visited, with a ready utterance of the native language. The time thus employed by our two Missionaries, during a period of three years' travelling in Egypt and the Holy Land, has not been spent in vain. An interval of this length, had it been passed in irresolute or desultory measures, would have been indeed a burden upon the Society; but the minds of the Missionaries were always bent on their main purpose; they were familiarizing themselves, through the medium of a few Abyssinians, with the opinions, customs, and language of the country; and they have thus at length, and at once, laid their hand to the work with the greatest advantage, in the very heart of the nation.

When we look back through the period of the last three centuries, and survey, in the Portuguese Settlements, and Jesuit Missions sent out to Abyssinia, a series of events, marked chiefly by commercial cupidity, political ambition, and ecclesiastical tyranny — when to this we add a retrospect of events which, since rather more than half a century, have faintly connected the name of Abyssinia with England, and have gratified literary men with a knowledge of the sources of the Nile—our hearts will be raised to incomparably nobler hopes, when we consider that, during the last two years, the British and Foreign Bible Society has become possessed of the entire Bible in the Abyssinian Language—that of this it has already printed the New Testament—and that the Church Missionary Society has its Labourers now actually in the midst of the Abyssinian Churches. What may we not expect for this Eastern side of Africa, should it please the Head of the Church to revive His blessed work in those regions, and remember His ancient mercies on their behalf?

In reference to North Africa, grounds of hope and encouragement are now opening before the Church of Christ, to which the Committee feel it their duty strongly to direct public attention. During the last two years, through the intervention of the American Consul at that Regency, the Four Gospels and the Book of Genesis have been translated, by a Native, into the Berber Language, which is spoken by the inhabitants of that region. Partial Vocabularies of this and of other Dialects of Africa have been, from time to time, collected by various enterprising English Travellers; who have, most of them, paid the forfeit of their lives, in consequence of perils encountered, or hardships endured, in that unfriendly climate. It is not known, however, that any books have been written in the above-mentioned Dialect, or that the language has been at any time reduced systematically to writing. Difficulties may, consequently, be expected to be met with in this first attempt; yet we cannot account it a strong or presumptuous statement, to say, that in this Version we possess a KEY, which, by the blessing of God, may serve to open, most extensively, regions which till now have been considered inaccessible. Simultaneously with this, the downfal of the Mahomedan military domination, or rather piratical despotism, at Algiers may be regarded as an important movement in the course of Providence. Access will thus be facilitated, under the protection of a friendly European Power.

While it was as yet only partially known that the Scriptures were thus translating at Algiers, it had been suggested to the Committee by Mr. Jowett, previous to his third departure for Malta, to attempt the commencement of a Mission on the North Coast of Africa; and they had been induced, by his representations, to sanction his visiting Bâsle, with a view to the selection of two competent Labourers in that field. The proposal was met with the greatest frankness and cordiality by the Committee at Bâsle. In the mean time, however, of the two Young Men set apart for this work, one became dangerously ill; and the other—as the attack on Algiers rendered Missionary attempts for the present impracticable there—was assigned to another Station: nor is it now in the power of the Society, its funds and other circumstances considered, to decide on any immediate steps in favour of such a plan.

INDIA.

THE attention of the Committee has been drawn to the disadvantageous situation in which, in several respects, the Native Christians of India have been placed, compared with the other Native Subjects of the British Indian Dominions, in consequence of the effect of certain of the East-India Company's Regulations. This subject had been pointed out to the attention of the Committees of Parliament, by the evidence of several of the witnesses examined, and particularly by that of Sir Edward Hyde East: and it was more fully brought before the Committee, by a detailed statement drawn up by a Member of the Society; which appeared to them of so much importance, that they adopted measures for bringing it under the consideration of the Court of Directors of the East-India Company:—and they are happy to state, that their communication not only met with a favourable reception, but that they have reason to believe that instructions have been sent out to India, for inquiring into, and relieving, the grievances complained of.

CALCUTTA AND NORTH-INDIA MISSION.

The reduced state of this Mission, from the losses which it has sustained, has long been a subject of anxiety with the Committee; and they have endeavoured, to the utmost of their power, to supply its wants, consistently with the claims made on them from other quarters. The Stations of the Society are, however, very inadequately provided for; those at the Presidency and Burdwan having only a single Missionary, where six years ago three were residing; and several others depending for spiritual instruction on a Native Catechist, under the superintendence of the nearest resident Chaplain.

Under these manifest disadvantages, there is much reason to be grateful to the Great Head of the Church that the supply of Native Teachers is evidently increasing; and that, notwithstanding the diminution of Preachers, forty-eight individuals have been admitted to Baptism, during the year, into the visible Church of Christ. The circumstances of one of the Congregation at Gorruckpore, previous to his conversion, and his exemplary conduct since, have induced Mr. Wilkinson to draw up a memoir of his life, which is preparing for publication.

Occasional visits by the Missionaries to distant places seem to have been the means of exciting the attention of the Natives. Mr. Bowley, when his health allowed, frequently undertook journeys of this kind; and Mr. Wilkinson has been similarly engaged. In reference to this, the Calcutta Report remarks:—

> Mr. Wilkinson has made several journeys into the District of Gorruckpore, and neighbouring Districts; in the course of which, much information on the leading truths of Christianity has been disseminated. Through the exertions of a friend at Jaunpore, a small Chapel has been erected; where Mr. Wilkinson officiates, when he visits that Station, both to European and Native Christians. A School has also been established in the Native Town. Mr. Wilkinson has caused a School Bungalow to be erected at Azeemghur; and another, it is understood, at a village in the Gorruckpore District, near the River Gogra: so that he has regular Stations, where he is now well known; and his visits always afford opportunity of much discussion with intelligent Natives, and cause the way of Truth to become extensively known to them.

The Calcutta Committee state, that, in the various Schools connected with the Mission, 1700 Children are under a course of Education. Of the English School at Calcutta, they write—

The Rev. J. Macqueen has, with the concurrence of the Bishop, undertaken the temporary charge of the English School; which, with the assistance of two Monitors, he has brought into a promising state. The number of Boys in daily attendance is about 110: these are divided into six Classes, and are taught by dictation; the Bishop having himself taken the trouble to arrange the Classes, and afforded them the benefit of his frequent inspection. The experiment in this mode of instruction is too recent to admit of much being said of it; but the effect, in exciting the attention and improving the progress of the First Class, of 14 Boys, is very encouraging.

One fact, communicated by the Rev. W. Parish to the Calcutta Committee, relative to the Society's School at Kurnaul, deserves to be noticed:—

Nine of the Scholars under Anund Messeeh's care are Zemindars, grown-up Young Men, who come and go, as their absence from their families and occupations can allow them. They have been, for five or six months together, learning to read and write, literally day and night: they do not scruple to read the Gospels; they learn with avidity the Catechisms of Geography, Arithmetic, &c. &c.; they come some fifteen or sixteen coss from their homes; and bring a little stock of money to support themselves;—Anund administering occasional assistance, and finding them shelter in the School-house.

A supply of Native Teachers has long been regarded by the Committee a chief desideratum in Missionary Labours; and their efforts have been directed to the use of all practicable means, in dependence on the Divine Blessing, for the accomplishment of this important object. The following Extract from the last Report of the Calcutta Committee will shew how entirely the sentiments of their friends in India harmonize with their own :—

The benefits arising from the labours of Native Christian Readers of the Scriptures is also made to appear, the more their services become available. It has always been an object with the Committee and the Missionaries of the Society to call forth, as much as possible, the aid of this class of Instructors : they can enter more entirely into the feelings of their countrymen, and ascertain their particular trials and family circumstances with a facility which no one brought up in European habits can ever do; whilst the comparatively small amount necessary for their support will admit of sufficient numbers being entertained to meet the wants of this teeming population, which the greater expenses of European Missionaries render a hopeless expectation from that description of Teachers.

Of the blessing already granted to the labours of the Native Teachers, they add—

To those who give heed to the steady, though very gradual advance of Divine Truth, in connexion with these unpretending exertions, abundant evidence appears that the Gospel is still the power of God unto salvation, and that God does continue to accompany the labours of His Servants with the renewing and sanctifying influences of His Spirit.

From the Sixth Report of the Calcutta Ladies' Society for Native-Female Education, it appears that that work is steadily advancing. The Schools at Calcutta are attended on an average by 330 Children, and those at Burdwan by 130. Mrs. Deerr, the Wife of the Missionary who is stationed there, states, that they are not so ready to learn as the Boys, but that 63 were able to read. Prejudice is giving way, and Mrs. Deerr remarks—

Though they have hitherto entertained a great dislike to the Education of their Females, I understand that they are now glad to hear that they are skilful, and talk with much animation among themselves about what they are capable of doing. They greatly admire the arts of sewing and marking; and mention, in a tone of exultation, that such a Girl can do it like a Mem Sahib (an English Lady).

MADRAS AND SOUTH-INDIA MISSION.

THE evidences of the Divine Blessing accompanying the Servants of God who are labouring in Southern India, and the ample encouragements which He has been pleased to vouchsafe to them, claim the gratitude of every Member of the Society: and were testimonies from other parts of the Society's operations wanting, abundant proofs might be adduced from this quarter alone, that they who are engaged in the work of evangelizing the Heathen have not spent their strength for naught, nor laboured in vain.

The Members of the Society will hear with joy, that, during the Bishop of Calcutta's visit to Madras, his Lordship held an Ordination, on which occasion two Individuals connected with the Society, Messrs. Edward Dent and John Dewasagayam, were admitted to Holy Orders. Mr. Dent, who is an Indo-Briton, has for some time been occupied as a Teacher at Perambore, in the neighbourhood of Madras: and the name of John Dewasagayam is familiar to those who are well acquainted with the Society's Proceedings, as having been for fourteen years a Native Inspector of the Society's Schools in and near Tranquebar, and during a considerable portion of that period the unwearied and steady Assistant of Mr. Bärenbruck. May the Chief Shepherd and Bishop of Souls fill these His Servants with the Holy Ghost, and make them able Ministers of the New Testament!

In the early part of last year, the Archdeacon of Madras visited the several Stations occupied by the Society in Southern India. The account which he transmitted to the Secretary of the Corresponding Committee at Madras has been printed in the Church Missionary Record for November and December. The testimony borne, after personal inspection, by one so well qualified to form a sound and accurate judgment as Archdeacon Robinson, is valuable at all times, but especially when a disposition is manifested in some quarters to disbelieve, and even deny the existence of any results from Missionary Labours in the conversion of Heathens to the Faith of Christ. The Committee refer those who may be desirous of detailed information to the Numbers of the Church Missionary Record already alluded to, and will briefly notice the principal points in the Archdeacon's account, and the communications of the Missionaries.

The Christian Congregation at MAYAVERAM, under the care of Mr. Bärenbruck, consists of 50 persons; and in the Schools, 30 in number, there are 1508 Children. The general state of the Schools and proficiency of the Children are noticed by the Archdeacon, and attributed principally to the judicious management of John Dewasagayam; and the state of the Mission, contrasted with what it was in 1826, is thus spoken of:—

> In the four years that have elapsed since I last visited the Mission, there is a manifest progress towards improvement: and though, still, the number of Converts is but small, yet the leaven diffused through the country, to a distance of many miles, by the Christian Books and the instruction in the Schools, is silently producing its effect; and the daily MOST ATTENTIVE presence of the Heathens at the Services of the Chapel is highly encouraging.

In the District of TINNEVELLY the work of God is making steady progress. The Converts continue to suffer persecution from those that are without; and, as might have been anticipated, some trials have arisen from within. Notwithstanding these circumstances, the Grace of Christ is visibly and powerfully displayed, both in sustaining His Servants, and in adding to their number; and, while the Congregations increase in every direction, an improvement in the character of the people is visible. One fact illustrative of this, in the case of a Congregation of Weavers in Tinnevelly, which is mentioned by the Archdeacon, deserves to be noticed:—

> After they became Christians, they said they could no longer consent to connive at the tricks of the Native Revenue Officers, and to share their plunder, in falsely numbering their looms, and so defrauding the Government. The Collector, AT THEIR REQUEST, numbered the looms afresh; and ONE THOUSAND Rupees were thus saved to the Government.

The Archdeacon passed several days in the District; during which time he had an opportunity of meeting the Native Catechists and Schoolmasters, examined the Students in the Seminary, and preached in the Mission Chapel in the town of Tinnevelly. His own account of what occurred during his visit will shew the gratification which he felt at the wonderful movements which are taking place in this province. His visit to the Chapel he thus notices:—

In the evening of the same day I visited the Native Congregation in the town of Tinnevelly, about three miles distant from Palamcottah. While the Christians were assembling in the Chapel, I had an opportunity of witnessing Mr. Rhenius's method of addressing the Heathen: we were walking round the splendid cloisters of the great Pagoda of Varunnen, and were followed by many hundreds. His lively and perfectly native mode of address, as well as the fluency of his language, attracts them wonderfully. The Brahmins crowded around him with eagerness: and as we stopped occasionally at an angle of the building, a question led to a remonstrance on the folly of this stupendous Idolatry, thus convicted and exposed by their own replies, till his remarks assumed gradually the form of a more general discourse, addressed to the multitudes around; while the pillars, the sides of the tank, and the pavement of the cloister were covered with eager listeners, who were hushed into the most breathless silence. He is bold, impressive, vivid; cheerful in his whole appearance, happy in his illustrations; and a master, not only of their language, but of their feelings and views.

We reached the Chapel about six, and found the lamps lighted for Evening Prayers. The history of this place is so interesting, that, though it has been brought to the notice of the Committee in the past Reports of the Missionaries, I cannot refrain from mentioning it again. They had been preaching in a small School-house since the year 1820, without any fruit whatever of their labours. People began to scoff at them, and they almost began to despair: but still they persevered; and suddenly they were rejoiced, by 60 Families, about 200 souls, renouncing Idolatry, and, after preparatory instruction, gradually joining their Church. Those persons are all respectable. Among them I was particularly introduced to a pensioned Subahdar, a venerable old man, whose life, which has lately been worne down with heavy domestic affliction, is said to be an ornament to his profession. The Chapel, a neat building in a crowded part of the town, finished in 1828, was almost filled. I spoke to them at considerable length; and the circumstances of the place which I have just mentioned, the recent Baptisms of so many, and the number of Heathens who were around the doors, made this one of the most striking scenes I witnessed in the province.

From the communications of the Missionaries, it appears that on the 3d of May, 1830, there were under their instruction 244 Villages; in each of which there is a number of Christian Families, formed into 64 Catechists' Stations; containing upward of 2000 Families, consisting of more than 7500 souls, instructed by 64 Native-Catechist Teachers or Catechists:—62 Christian Schools; of which 38 are taught by separate Masters, and 24 by the Catechists: in these Schools 1300 Children, including 112 Girls, are instructed:—36 Native Youths form a Seminary, from which a number have, in the course of the last six years, been employed in the Congregations and Schools There are in these 244 Villages at least 150 Churches or Prayer-Houses, of different sizes and quality; and almost every Village has a separate Building for Prayer and Instruction.

The Committee trust that the following Appeal of the Missionaries will not be made in vain:—

We entreat, that, in addition to pecuniary aid, fervent prayer to the Giver of all good gifts, also, be offered up, by all who love the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ—that He will grant us the needful wisdom, health, and strength, to go on stedfastly, immoveably, and always abounding in the work of the Lord; and to the people, the hearing ear and the understanding heart, to become duly converted to God in Christ, and heirs of everlasting life! May we all work while it is day! The night cometh, when no man can work.

The testimony of the Archdeacon as to the state of the Mission at COTTAYAM, the proficiency of those who are educating in the College and Schools, and the estimation in which the Missionaries are held by the Syrians, is most satisfactory. The Archdeacon writes:—

It was highly gratifying to witness the great progress, both of sound learning and religious feeling, among the Syrian Youth who are destined for Holy Orders; the great desire for Education which has spread throughout the country; and the confidence and affection with which the Brethren at Cottayam are regarded generally, by both the Clergy and the Laity. The improvement thus produced, especially among the Candidates for the Priesthood, gives us the best ground of hope for the future reformation of this Church: but it is of the utmost consequence to remember, that their reformation is still future, and that probably for many years it must be the object of hope, rather than of exultation—of earnest prayer, and wise counsel.

The experience of each succeeding year recommends the principle on which this Mission has been undertaken and conducted: and although it may be long before the ulterior objects of the Society are attained, there is reasonable ground for the conviction, that, in attempting, under the Divine Blessing, the renovation of that ancient Church, the foundation has been laid of permanent and extensive good to the Heathen Population with which it has been surrounded. Let but the Syrian Church in Travancore be restored to the pure Faith of Christ, and she will become a faithful witness for God among those who dishonour and disobey him, and a light to guide many of those who are now in darkness into the way of life and peace.

At Cochin, Mr. Ridsdale has met with much encouragement in the interest lately excited among the Cokanee Brahmins, who are reading the Scriptures diligently, and of some of whom he entertains hopes. There are but few Converts from among the Heathen, but the Malayalim Services both in the Church and Bazaar are well attended.

The Committee are happy to state, that in many parts of the Peninsula of Southern India a desire has been manifested by the Members of the Romish Church to escape from her galling yoke. The inhabitants of Mavalore Coopum and four other Villages have made application to Mr. Schaffter, to give them instruction, and to receive them into the Protestant Church; and instances of the same feeling have occurred in Tanjore, Dindigul, Travancore, Tellicherry, and Cochin. At the last-named place, Mr.

Lima, late Franciscan at Goa, who has renounced Popery, is now assisting Mr. Ridsdale: he is an earnest and impressive preacher, and, in the judgment of the Archdeacon, is likely to prove a valuable auxiliary to the Mission.

Applications have been made to the Committee to strengthen the Stations already occupied, and to enter on new ground where favourable openings have arisen; but it has been their painful duty to restrict, instead of enlarge, their operations; and they anxiously desire to impress on the minds of those who wish well to the Society and the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ, that, till the Church of God is awakened to a due sense of her blessings and of her responsibilities, the Missionary, who is bearing the burden and heat of the day abroad, will in vain entreat for more help, the Heathen will in vain cry out, "Come over and help us." May the voice raised, not only in Southern India, but from every part of the world, be heard by every Member of the Church of Christ! and may he be stirred up to ask in what way he can more effectually promote the preaching of the Everlasting Gospel among the Nations of the Earth.

BOMBAY AND WEST-INDIA MISSION.

The Committee have little to report in reference to this part of the Society's proceedings. The Mission has for a time been deprived of the services of the Rev. W. Mitchell, who returned to England, with Mrs. Mitchell, on occasion of that illness which subsequently proved fatal. On his leaving Bandora, Mr. and Mrs. Farrar took up their residence there; and are pursuing the study of Mahratta, and preparing for active labour. Mr. Dixon is residing at Basseen.

CEYLON MISSION.

THE Missionaries in Ceylon assembled at Cotta, from their various Stations, the beginning of September, for the purpose of holding their Twelfth Annual Meeting. They have experienced the benefit of thus meeting together, in the promotion of brotherly love; the God of Peace and Love being with them.

The MINISTRY of the Gospel has not hitherto been attended with a large and extensive blessing; though at each of the four Stations the Brethren have received some seals to their Ministry. In reference to this, Mr. Lambrick remarks:—

> The Lord is pleased to vouchsafe, from time to time, single instances of converting Grace; and we would receive them with thankfulness, while we look up to Him for the more abundant outpouring of His Holy Spirit on us and our people.

In the work of EDUCATION, and especially in reference to those who are under preparation for the office of Native Teachers, should it hereafter appear that they are duly qualified, there are many circumstances of an encouraging kind; and one of the Youths educated at Baddagame has been appointed Assistant in the Schools at Cotta, and appears, from his steadiness, attention, and good conduct, to have received the Truth in the love of it.

The PRESS, both at Cotta and Nellore, has been actively employed; and the Translation of the Scriptures has occupied a large share of the attention of Mr. Lambrick and Mr. Selkirk. The revision of what had formerly been done by Mr. Lambrick alone has proceeded, and is prepared for the Press as far as the middle of St. John's Gospel; which, when finished, will form a connected series of the Books of the New Testament, from the Gospel of St. Matthew to the Epistle to the Romans inclusively. Genesis only has been printed of the Old Testament: and the Missionaries purpose proceeding with the Psalms; and afterwards returning to the Book of Exodus, and proceeding with the Pentateuch and Historical Books in order.

The printing of Religious Tracts at Nellore has been greatly aided by an Annual Grant of Paper from the Religious-Tract Society in London; and by the Missionaries:—

By the Publications of the Tract Society, Heathenism, during the year, has received a shock; the effects of which will, it may be hoped, soon be more apparent. The adherents of the system are driven to adopt many different expedients: some, by the exposures which have been made of their sacred mysteries, are greatly enraged, and utter sad imprecations on the unknown informants, who, if they were known, would probably be severely treated: others, influenced by similar feelings, positively assert that the incantations we have obtained are not genuine, and that we have been imposed on; while a great number admit that they are genuine, but ashamed at the disclosure, and, wishing to avoid disgrace, disavow all confidence in them, or profess to have discontinued the use of them.

AUSTRALASIA MISSION.

The arrangement made between Sir George Murray, when at the head of the Colonial Department, and the Society, for undertaking a Mission to the Aborigines of New Holland, was noticed in the last Report; but the completion of that design was delayed by those political changes which have transferred the seals of the Colonial Department to Viscount Goderich. The Committee are happy to state, that, after receiving a full explanation of the plan, and of the methods which the Society proposed to adopt for carrying it into effect, Lord Goderich has adopted the measure projected by his immediate predecessor in office.

In the present state of the Society's resources, the Committee would not have ventured to engage in such an undertaking as the present, except on the suggestion of his Majesty's Government; nor unless they had been relieved from the expenditure consequent upon this addition to their existing engagements. But to an invitation proceeding from such high authority, and seconded by so liberal an offer, they could not have refused to accede, without an abandonment of the most sacred duty.

The Committee do not presume to constitute themselves interpreters of the motives by which the Ministers of the Crown may have been actuated on the present occasion; but it is not difficult to conjecture what may have been some of the considerations which contributed to their decision.

The Colony of New South Wales was originally settled merely as a receptacle for Convicts. The co-operation of various causes has promoted the agriculture, wealth, and population of the British Possessions in New Holland, with a rapidity of which, perhaps, History furnishes no other example. But this extraordinary advance of colonization has been effected at the expense of the original inhabitants and proprietors of the soil: their lands have been occupied, both for pasturage and tillage, to an extent scarcely credible. In their conflicts with the intruders into their native country, they have invariably sustained defeat and loss: and the European Settlers amongst them, having been generally selected from the most ignorant and depraved part of the population of our great cities, have had little else to communicate but the vices of civilized society, with their attendant degradation and misery.

It may not unreasonably be believed, that the Ministers of the Crown have felt, and are fully prepared to acknowledge, the claims which these circumstances have established on the justice and compassion of the people of Great Britain. Enjoying peculiar means of information, they are probably much more conversant than others with the real history of these transactions, and more sensible of the urgent necessity of some reparation being made for the injuries which we have inflicted on this unoffending part of the great family of Man. To such motives we venture to ascribe a resolution, to which considerations of economy might, at first sight, seem to have been opposed.

We rejoice, however, in the proof thus afforded us, that the Rulers of our Country are not to be diverted by a timid parsimony from performing the great duty of redressing the wrongs inflicted by British policy on these barbarous and helpless tribes. Even on the most sordid calculation of national interest, it would not be difficult to shew, that such an expense is wisely incurred, for the protection of our Australian Settlements against the enmity of their uncultivated neighbours. But their claim to our care and instruction rests on much firmer and less disputable grounds.

The revenues of the Crown in New Holland are derived from the culture of lands, of which the ancient proprietors have been deprived forcibly, and without compensation. The small sum subtracted from those revenues, for the benefit of that injured race, is due to them, in the strictest sense, as a debt of justice. We have imparted to the Aborigines the knowledge and the practice of European crimes. Having compelled them to taste such fruits of the Tree of Knowledge, could we, without the most gross injustice, neglect to give them access to the Tree of Life? Hitherto they have known us only as conquerors and usurpers. With what propriety could we call ourselves Christians, and yet take no means to embrace them in the bonds of Christian-fellowship? The history of Colonization amongst the Barbarous Nations is the deepest and most indelible reproach to the character of Christendom. Wherever civilized man has set his foot, in America or in Southern Africa, it has been as a scourge, to desolate the regions over which he has advanced. The vast territories of New Holland, and its adjacent Islands, are the latest territorial acquisitions effected by the energy and science of Civilized Nations. Could any man who values the reputation of his native country, or any Government to whose care that reputation is confided, think, without abhorrence, of repeating on this new theatre the abominations by which the early European Settlements in the Antilles, in America, and in Southern Africa, were polluted.

We have thus ventured to suggest the views which may have induced Sir George Murray to propose, and his Noble Successor in office to adopt and sanction, the measure which has been taken for the conversion of the Natives of New Holland. Far be it from us, however, to doubt that those eminent persons, and their colleagues in office, have been also actuated by yet higher considerations. On the contrary, we gladly yield to the conviction, that they recognise the duty

NEW ZEALAND.

The general state of the New-Zealand Mission calls for unfeigned gratitude to the Father of Mercies. Not only has He continued to the Missionaries the shield of His protection in seasons of personal danger, but He has given them an increasing ascendancy over the native mind, and has thus enabled them a second time to act, with success, as pacificators between contending tribes. A detailed account of the hostilities which took place in the Bay of Islands, and of the successful mediation of the Missionaries, accompanied by Mr. Marsden, was given in the Society's Record for August; and it is a subject of much thankfulness, that their efforts should have been the means of effecting a reconciliation between the combatants, and of preventing the effusion of human blood. In Mr. Marsden's judgment, however, a still further result is to be looked for, in the moral impression which this event has produced on the minds of the Native Chiefs who had assembled from distant quarters on that occasion, and who had thus an opportunity of reading, in characters too legible to be misunderstood, what are the real object and motives of those who had come to their country preaching peace by Jesus Christ.

One circumstance has cast a gloom over the Mission, and deprived it of the valuable services of three individuals. Mr. C. Davis, his Wife, and Mrs. Hart, left Port Jackson for New Zealand in the "Haweis," on the 18th of October, 1829, but had not been heard of on the 2d of September last; and there is too much ground for the apprehension that the vessel foundered at sea.

For the very interesting details, connected with the Mission, the Committee refer the Members of the Society to the last year's Records of August and October, and those of January and February of the present year; and will briefly touch on a few general heads.

In the SCHOOLS at the various Stations, 158 Men and Boys, and 37 Females, are receiving Christian Instruction, and are trained up to habits of industry and good order: many of them can read and write their own language with propriety, and are completely masters of the first Rules of Arithmetic; and, at an Examination which was held in December 1829, some highly satisfactory specimens of needle-work by the Girls, and of Carpentry by the Boys, were exhibited.

The Committee are happy to state, that the Missionaries are steadily proceeding in the translation of the Word of God into the New-Zealand Language; and that while a reading population is growing up, the means are also afforded them of drawing for themselves at the fountain-head of the Water of Life. During a visit to New South Wales, Mr. Yate carried through the Press an Edition of 550 copies of a small Volume, containing Translations of Portions of the New Testament. Mr. Yate took with him a Printing Press to New Zealand; which had been sent out from this country, at the instance of the Missionaries.

It is a gratifying fact, that while Satan exercises a tyranny over the minds of immense multitudes of his miserable subjects by means of Shasters and Vedams, which predispose the mind to the rejection of Divine Truth, the first book with which the New Zealanders will become acquainted is the Book of God; which, by the teaching of His Spirit, will make them wise unto salvation.

The visits to the Natives, for the purpose of addressing them on the things connected with their spiritual welfare, have been continued, and the accustomed Services at the Settlements kept up; and it has pleased God, in several instances, to bless the ministry of His Word. Eight Adults and five Children have been baptized; and many more are exhibiting promising appearances of a work of grace having been begun in their hearts.

One or two cases the Committee cannot forbear to mention. Mr. Marsden notices the following:—

May 6, 1830—I dined with Mr. Hamlin: a Young Woman waited at table. She seemed very much concerned about her future state; asking Mrs. Hamlin, with great simplicity, if there was any more room in Heaven? She said, her mind was very dark, and her heart very hard; and wished Mrs. Hamlin to tell her what she must do. Mrs. Hamlin told her, she must pray to God. She asked, "What must I pray?" Mrs. Hamlin told her. She said, "Oh, Mother!" which they use as a term of strong affection, "they are the very words we used last night, when I and some of the Girls were praying together: but I am afraid God will not pardon me, I am so great a sinner." She is humble and meek in mind.

Of another he writes:—

A pious Youth died at Rangihoua, a little time before my arrival. Mr. King informed me, that a little book, containing part of the Church Service and a portion of the Scriptures, which had been translated, was his constant companion.

The following cases are extracted from Mr. William Williams's Journal:—

Taiwanga, a Baptized Native, observed, that God is now chastizing him for his sins. "I am an obstinate child," said he; "and God is now whipping me." His natural disposition is exceedingly turbulent; and it has, I doubt not, caused him much sorrow. Two of his children have lately been sick; and this he considered to be on account of his hardness of heart.

Aug. 8, 1830: Sunday—Spoke to Natives at Otuihu. In the evening, visited a sick Native, named Rapé, living with my brother. For some months past he had been exceedingly careless and indifferent to any thing good: now, however, he has shewn a disposition to inquire; and this change may be attributed, under God's Blessing, to the instrumentality of those Natives about him who have received the Truth. He is now exceedingly ill. He told me, that he thought much of Jesus Christ, and that He would take him to Heaven when he dies. "I pray to Him to come and sleep with me, and take care of me, lest the Devil should come to tempt me. My body," he observed, "has not been baptized; but Jesus Christ will baptize my soul by His Holy Spirit."

For these things the Committee would offer their grateful praises to Him who has thus condescended to own the labours of His servants; and would wait patiently for a yet more extensive blessing. May the voice of thanksgiving and prayer ascend to the Lord of Hosts; and may He vouchsafe to display yet more gloriously the power of His grace!

Nor, while some few are made partakers of the grace of God, should the general improvement be overlooked: and the Christian mind will delight in contemplating the following picture, drawn by Mr. Marsden on his arrival at the time of the hostilities before alluded to:—

The contrast between the east and west side of the Bay was very striking, though only two miles distant: the east shore was crowded with different tribes of fighting-men, in a wild, savage state; many of them nearly naked; and when exercising, entirely so: nothing was to be heard but the firing of muskets, and the din and confusion of a savage military camp; some mourning the death of their friends, others suffering from their wounds; and not one but whose mind was involved in Heathen Darkness, without one ray of Divine Knowledge. On the west side, there was the pleasing sound of the "Church-going bell;" the Natives assembling together for Divine Worship, clean, orderly, and decently dressed, most of them in European clothing: they were carrying in their hands the Litany, and the greater part of the Church Service, with their Hymns, written in their own language. Their whole conduct, and the general appearance of the Settlement, reminded me of a well-regulated English country parish. In the Chapel, the Natives behaved with the greatest propriety, and joined in the Church Service. Here might be viewed, at one glance, the blessings of the Christian Religion, and the miseries of Heathenism, with respect to the present life: but when we direct our thoughts into the eternal world, how infinite is the difference!

After noticing the barriers which Satan opposes to the progress of the Gospel of Peace in New Zealand, Mr. Marsden adds:—

The time will come when human sacrifices and cannibalism will be annihilated in New Zealand, by the pure, mild, and heavenly influence of the Gospel of our Blessed Lord and Saviour. The work is great; but Divine Goodness will find both the means and the instruments to accomplish His own gracious purposes to fallen man: His Word, which is the sword of the Spirit, is able to subdue these savage people to the obedience of the Faith. It is the duty of Christians to use the means, to sow the seed, and patiently to wait for the heavenly dews to cause it to spring up; and afterwards, to look up to God, in Faith and Prayer, to send the early and the latter rain.

It had been in the contemplation of the Committee to relinquish the Station at Rangihoua, with a view of strengthening the others. It was found, however, that the Chiefs were extremely averse to the Missionaries leaving them. Mr. Marsden states:—

They applied to me, to know whether the Missionaries were to be taken away or not, and demanded the reason. The head Chief, Wárepórka, asked Mr. King what they had done? "Have we robbed you? Have we injured you or your families? Tell us what we have done to you. If we have injured you in any way, you have a right to leave us; we will not blame you: but if you have nothing to allege against us, it will be a shame for you to leave us. When you are gone, no one shall touch your houses; but they shall stand empty, until they rot and fall down: and when any Europeans come on shore and inquire whose houses they are, we shall tell them, 'They belonged to the Missionaries, who left us without any cause; and they now stand as a monument of their disgrace.'"

WEST-INDIES' MISSION.

The Society has been enabled to continue its labours in the West Indies, chiefly on the Estates of Individuals who are friendly to its objects.

There are in connexion with the Society, 8 Catechists, and 13 Schools, containing 717 Scholars.

The Committee of the Jamaica Church Missionary Auxiliary remark, that they are gratified in learning, from the reports of the Catechists, that, in several instances, individuals have given proof, by holy and consistent conduct, that they have embraced the Gospel, not in profession merely, but in heartfelt sincerity.

The disabilities under which the Native Inhabitants of our Indian Empire labour, when professing Christianity, have been noticed, in connexion with the Society's Eastern Missions; and every Member of the Society will rejoice at the prospect which is held out of their removal. It should not be overlooked, however, that those disabilities are comparatively trifling, when brought into juxta-position with the formidable barriers raised up by the West-Indian system against the spiritual improvement of the Negro Slave. In the East, the door is at least open to the Missionary, so as to obtain a hearing, whatever consequences may follow: in the West, he is almost without the possibility of imparting instruction to one who is labouring to the full extent of his bodily powers during the six days of the week, and is forced, by imperious necessity, to employ the seventh in the cultivation of his plot of ground, or in going to the distant market to purchase his provisions. In the East, the slave of Satan is permitted to listen to, though he may reject, the message of Salvation: in the West, the very attendance on the Messenger of Life has, in many instances, brought down on the unhappy offender the vengeance of his CHRISTIAN Master! Ought this state of things to be allowed to continue? Ought the British Christian, possessed of the constitutional privilege of petitioning the Legislature of the Country—ought he to neglect to avail himself of this privilege, and contentedly allow so many thousands of his fellow-men and fellow-subjects in the West annually to sink into the grave, without an effort to confer on them at least the possibility of hearing of the Way of Salvation?

Till the undisturbed enjoyment of the Lord's Day be conceded to the Slave, which is now unrighteously withheld from him, all efforts for his spiritual welfare must in a great measure be unavailing; and no private regulation or legislative enactment can secure to him that day to which he is entitled, unless one of the six days be set apart to enable him to provide for his temporal wants. So deeply have the Committee been impressed with this conviction, that they have laid down as the principle on which they will assist in instructing the Slaves on an Estate, the conceding to them of one of the working-days in the week, for the purpose which they have named.

It would be unfair not to notice the fact, that there are honourable and bright exceptions to the system which has been adverted to. There are among the West-Indian Proprietors some Christian Men, who have come forward, in the face of much opposition and reproach, for the benefit of the Slaves on their Estates; and who, by imparting to them the benefits of Christian Instruction, are materially promoting their spiritual welfare, as well as efficiently preparing them for the right use and enjoyment of liberty. But still such is the power of the system, that these very friends of the Slaves cannot fully carry their wishes into effect, but are cramped and crippled in their exertions.

NORTH-WEST-AMERICA MISSION.

THE general state of the Mission continues nearly the same as described in the last Report. The Churches and Sunday Schools are well attended; but the advantages of daily instruction do not seem to be valued by the Parents. A Schoolmaster has been much wanted, to supply the place of Mr. W. Garrioch, who has been compelled to relinquish his situation by ill-health. The Committee would gladly have sent out a successor to Mr. Garrioch; but they did not conceive themselves justified in such a measure, by the state of the Society's Finances.

One pleasing fact, connected with the Mission, deserves to be noticed. Two Indian Boys, who had been brought by Governor Simpson, about four years ago, from the Colombia River, on the other side of the Rocky Mountains, and had been under the instruction of Mr. Cockran, went home on a visit to their parents. They have since returned, bringing with them five other Boys: four of these are the sons of four different Chieftains, the Heads of four large Tribes of Indians dwelling beyond the Rocky Mountains, and each of them speaking a different dialect from the others. They manifest a considerable desire to learn; and, should it please God, may become the instruments of guiding many of their countrymen to the knowledge of the True God.

On reviewing the Society's operations in various parts of the world, and comparing them with those of former periods of its history, it will be seen that its encouragements were never more numerous, nor its prospects brighter. In the regions, hitherto inaccessible, which are opening to the footsteps of the Missionary—in the difficulties which in so many ways are vanishing before him—in the readiness with which, in almost every quarter of the globe, his message is listened to—in the success which is attending the preparation of Native Teachers—in the seals which God has vouchsafed to the Ministry of His Servants—in the continuance of many Congregations in the Faith of Christ—and in the stedfastness of numberless individuals, who, recently emerged from Heathenism, are adorning the doctrine of God their Saviour by a holy life—there is much to shew that the Lord is gone out before us, and much to awaken our gratitude for the honour which He has put on our unworthy labours. Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto Thy Name give the praise, for Thy mercy, and for Thy truth's sake!

But, while we are grateful for these indications of the Lord's presence, is there nothing in these things to quicken our exertions? The language in which they speak to the Children of Israel is, that they go forward; and, that seeing how, from small beginnings, God has prospered and blessed their efforts, they should be stirred up to more extended and self-denying services in this blessed work. If the joy which these encouragements inspire is allayed by any feeling of an opposite nature, it arises not from the state of the Missions, but from the backwardness of the Church of Christ to avail itself to the full extent of the opportunities which are afforded it. Fields are white unto the harvest; but where are the Labourers to gather it in? The Heathen are crying out, as with one voice, Come over and help us! but where are the self-denying soldiers of Christ, constrained by love, who are willing to help them? Facilities for imparting the blessings of Christian Education are multiplying daily; but where are the pecuniary resources to turn those facilities to account? It is with difficulty that the Society has, for the last few years, been enabled to maintain its existing establishments; and to enlarge its sphere of labour, would have been only to excite hopes and expectations that would soon have terminated in disappointment. The Members of the Society must judge for themselves, each according to the dictates of his own conscience, as to the practical application of the present state of the Society's affairs; bearing however in mind, that the zeal and activity with which the men of the world and the emissaries of Satan are prosecuting their respective plans of usefulness or destruction, read a valuable lesson to the Children of Light:—Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

There is another consideration—which seems to speak to us in no doubtful language, Work while it is day—arising from the commotions of the kingdoms around us, and from the agitations of our own country. The conflict between the Powers of Light and Darkness, between the Servants of Christ and the Slaves of Satan, is daily strengthening, and there are indications that a crisis is hastening on. The world is in a state of general excitement; the foundations of the earth are out of course; the long-established institutions of men are tottering to the very base; the things which Jehovah has not planted are up-rooted; and there is a shaking of those things that are to be removed, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain. Let the Servants of God, then, not turn away from Him that speaketh from Heaven. In the midst of these things there is a voice of encouragement: the Church may be surrounded by dangers, but the Lord is her Shield: she may pass through the fire, but her dross only will be lost: she may be sharply tried by the assaults of Satan, but her foundation is the Lord of Hosts. Let the Members of the Church hear this voice of encouragement, and rise to their obvious duty: let them realise the privileges of the Kingdom as their own, and they will put forth all their energies to direct their fellow-men to the same blessed citizenship: let them contemplate the nearness of that period to which their affections and hopes and prayers have long been directed, and they will be stirred up to watchfulness for themselves, and unremitting anxiety for the welfare of others. Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably, with reverence and godly fear: for our God is a consuming fire.
